

DR. ROGERS' LIVERWORT AND TAR

A SAFE and certain cure for Consumption of the Lungs, spitting of Blood, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Pain in the side, Bronchitis, Hooping Cough, and all pulmonary affections.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. The Louisville Journal says: "Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar not only gives immediate relief in coughs and colds, but, from the testimony of men of the highest standing here and elsewhere, it is making some very remarkable cures of consumption."

The Railway Register adds: "We have heard it stated, by persons of great respectability, who have used this medicine, that it is one of the most remarkable medicines of the age, for Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pain in the side and breast, Spitting of Blood, Whooping cough, and all Lung complaints, which, if neglected, usually terminate in consumption; and the certificates attached to the advertisement would seem fully to justify this statement."

LIVERWORT. This plant has, for many years, been found to be of singular virtue in the cure of affections of the Liver. More recently it was ascertained that it possessed great power in arresting Bleeding at the Lungs, Coughs of a chronic character, &c., and of essential service in all diseases of a pulmonary character.

TAR. This article is now universally acknowledged to be the most healing and efficient application for diseased or decaying lungs, or any portion of the fleshy or muscular parts of the human body. Its medicinal and preservative qualities were understood by the Egyptians in the early ages of the world, and no doubt now exists among scientific men, that the preparation used in the embalmment of bodies, was composed principally of this ingredient. In later ages, it was found to be in universal use among the aborigines of America, and at this day it is their principal, and, in fact, only medicine for an assumed state of the lungs, or any approach to it. Those who are acquainted with the history of this hardy race of men, know that a death from Consumption is unknown among them! The medical faculty in all countries appear to have become aware of the great healing properties of this article, and are now introducing it in their practice. Dr. Buchanan, of England, Dr. Crichton, of St. Petersburg, Dr. La Priere, of Paris, and the distinguished Dr. Cooper, have been in the habit of combining it with other articles in their prescriptions, and with entire success.

Beware of Counterfeits and Base Imitations!

The genuine article is signed ANDREW ROGERS, on the engraved wrapper around each bottle. Price, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. For sale in Woodville, by WRIGHT & ELDER. January, 1850. 3-ly

TRUSTEE SALE. BY VIRTUE of a certain Deed of Trust, made by James L. Hodge, to me as Trustee, on the 26th day of October, A. D. 1841, and recorded in the Probate Clerk's office, of Wilkinson county, State of Mississippi, in Book M., pages 396 and 397, of the Record of Deeds, to secure George H. Gordon, on account of his having become security of and for the said James L. Hodge, on a promissory note therein mentioned; and whereas, the said George H. Gordon has been compelled to pay said note, I will, therefore, on Saturday, the 1st day of June, A. D. 1850, between the hours of 10 o'clock, A. M., and 4 o'clock, P. M., of that day, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, at the Court-house door, in the town of Woodville, the following described property to-wit: A negro man slave, named MOSES, about 33 years old.

I shall sell said negro, for the purpose of paying said Gordon, the amount paid by him on account of said note, with interest thereon, and costs of this sale, and make such title as is vested in me by said Deed of Trust, which is believed to be good. STANHOPE POSEY, Nov. 27, 1849—49m6. Trustee.

EMPORIUM OF FASHION.

THE subscriber has just opened at the store room adjoining Mr. Jones' Place, on Boston Row, a large & magnificent assortment of Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, hats, gloves, suspenders, &c. We have spared neither time nor expense, in selecting for this market with the wants of which we are well acquainted, our present stock of goods. We flatter ourselves that men who purchase of them will have cause to complain of neither the price or the article. To enumerate the contents of their store, would be to furnish a catalogue of all articles, used for fancy dress or utilitarian purposes. Nothing that the mind of the most fanciful or sedate, can conceive, that is to be found any where else, has been omitted in our stock.

In offering our services to the good people of this place, we would return our sincere thanks for favors shown us on other occasions, and in soliciting their patronage, believes it to be their own interest. Those wanting any thing, and every thing "useful, neat or gay," will find it at the store of SWARTZ & LEHMAN. Oct. 9, '49.—if. Boston Row.

Woodville Female Institute.

Mrs. C. S. HEDGES, Principal. THIS Institution is now in successful operation, and is open for the reception of pupils. The Principal has permanently located in Woodville, and will spare no pains or expense in placing the institution among the first in the country. The method of instruction in the mind and ornamental branches of Female Education, will be such, it is believed, as will best develop and mature the intellect and moral faculties. The discipline will be kind and parental, yet firmly maintained, while the refinement of the manners and general deportment of the pupils, will receive the constant attention of the instructors. The Principal will be aided by several assistants of practical ability.

TERMS FOR SESSION OF FIVE MONTHS. Tuition in all English Branches, $15 to 20; French, $10; Instrumental Music, $30—use instruments, $5; Embroidery, Drawing and Painting at the usual rates. Board $50; Washing $7 50; fuel and light $4, furnishing rooms, $1 60 per month. These charges must be paid in advance, or arranged to the satisfaction of the Principal. Woodville, January, 23, 1850. 5-ly.

The very commodious and elegant house belonging to Col. Hamilton, has been procured for this institution.

WISTAR'S BALSAM.

THE BEST remedy ever known to man, for Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Bronchitis, Influenza, Bleeding of the lungs, Difficulty of Breathing, Liver Affections, Pain or Weakness of the Breast or Side, First stages of consumption, &c. Of all the cures that have yet been recorded, there are certainly none equal to the one first mentioned, which plainly shows the curability of consumption, even in some of its worst forms.

JEFFERSON COUNTY, La., Feb. 27, 1849. Messrs. Sanford & Park—Gents: This is to certify, that my wife, Nancy Donohy, has been in a declining state of health for the last two years. Her disease baffled the skill of the best medical aid I could procure—her physicians pronounced her disease "Consumption in the last stage," and said that her recovery was past all human hope. As a last resort, with very little hope, I procured Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. After using a few bottles, I found, to my agreeable surprise, that her health was improving rapidly. She is now so far recovered, as to be able to attend to her regular household duties, without suffering any inconvenience. Her rapid improvement and present health, warrant me in the belief that she will soon be entirely restored.

RHODES DOHONEY. "State of Indian, Jefferson county, ss. I, James M. Humphreys, a Justice of the peace in and for said county and State, do certify that the above named Rhodes Dohoney subscribed and made oath to the foregoing certificate before me, this 27th day of February 1849. JAS. M. HUMPHREYS, J. P.

TO THE PUBLIC.—I, Jacob Green, of the county of Jennings, and State of Indiana, do hereby certify, that in the early part of last season, I was taken with a violent cough attended with a pain in the breast, and sometimes fever, and that I employed a skillful physician for some time, who said he could give me no relief. I then commenced using Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and felt almost immediate relief; and after taking three bottles, I find myself in as good health as I have enjoyed for a number of years. My restoration, under the blessing of God, I attribute to the use of the medicine above named. JACOB GREEN. March 1st, 1849.

State of Indiana, Jennings county. I, David T. Skinner, a Justice of the Peace in and for the said county and State, do certify that the above named Jacob Green, subscribed and made oath to the foregoing certificate, before me, this first day of March, 1849.

We would advise those of our readers who are laboring under an affection of the lungs, to make immediate trial of this truly excellent medicine. The most intelligent and respectable families of our city have adopted it as a favorite medicine; and persons predisposed to consumption, who have used it, speak in the highest terms of its efficacy. Beware of counterfeits and imitations—syrups, and all other preparations of Wild Cherry. Remember, they only imitate in name, without possessing the virtue. Buy none but the genuine and original DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, signed "Sanford & Park," on the wrapper around each bottle.

Sold by the following AGENTS. Wright & Elder, Woodville, S. Kline & Co. Port Adams, Ball & Latham, Bayou Sara, Centreville, W. F. Kamm, Jackson, La. Badgett & Covington, Liberty. January, 1850. 3-ly

Blackwood's Magazine,

AND THE BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Owing to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the old world, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American Publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they republish and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

The London Quarterly Review, The Edinburgh Review, The North British Review, The Westminster Review, AND Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately, though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three great parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical—"Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Review" Whig; and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge; it was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death is conducted by his son-in-law Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has therefore the advantage by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac-simile of the Edinburgh edition.

TERMS. For any one of the 4 Reviews, $3 per an. For any two, do, $5 00 " For any three, do, 7 00 " For all 4 of the Reviews, 8 00 " For Blackwood's Magazine, 3 00 " For Blackwood and 3 reviews, 9 00 " For Blackwood and 4 reviews, 10 00 "

Payments to be made in all cases in advance. CLUBBING. Four copies of any or all of the above works will be sent to one address on payment of the regular subscription for three—the fourth copy being gratis.

Remittance and communications should be always addressed, post-paid or franked, to the Publishers, LEONARD SCOTT & Co., 79 FULTON STREET, New York. Entrance 64 Cold street.

PROSPECTUS OF THE DEMOCRATIC REVIEW. 2d. Volume. Price Reduced—Matter Increased. $3.

In commencing the 21st volume of the Review, we have to acknowledge the continuance of a liberal patronage on the part of the public, and an enthusiastic response from the democratic party, to those great principles of National Policy, which it is our endeavor to elucidate. We have entered into extensive arrangements for a great variety of novel and interesting matter, that will add to the attraction and value of the New Volume.

FIRST.—We have engaged for exclusive publication, the "Souvenirs of the life of Gen. Court Monmouth," beginning with his first campaign under Gen. Dumourier, at the commencement of the French revolution of 1789, and closing with his late imprisonment with Prince Louis Napoleon, at Ham. It will comprise the most extraordinary revolutions of the wonderful epoch he has lived and acted in, that has ever been given to the public, disclosing singular traits of the private life, intrigues—political and amatory, secret negotiations, &c., of all the Sovereigns, Chief Ministers and Marshals, who moved with all the vividness and variety of a brilliant panorama, around the great central luminary, Napoleon.

SECONDLY.—We are in treaty for a remarkable work on England, to be published exclusively in the Democratic Review. This may be counted on as forthcoming.

FOURTH.—We have contracted with foreign writers of great ability, and enjoying exclusive opportunities, for occasional Reviews of the politics and literature of Europe.

AND LAST.—We shall give from time to time some able papers from our own more distinguished writers.

The accustomed features of the Review will be continued, including portraits and biographies of distinguished Democrats—men whose patriotism and steadiness of principle have won the confidence of the people.

We have to remind our readers that the low terms on which we furnish the Review, can be maintained only by the subscription in advance, and that the expenditure incurred to improve the work, can be met only by the prompt remittance of subscriptions.

The publication of the Review has been committed to the charge of Mr. John W. Moore, who has been connected for the last eight years, with the publishing department of the "Merchant's Magazine," and whose experience and well-known energy will no doubt exert a favorable influence on the business, &c., of the Review. All subscriptions and letters on business will hereafter be addressed to J. W. Moore, office Democratic Review, 170 Broadway. T. P. KETTEL, Editor.

NOTICE.

ANY person knowing a Lady of the following description, if they will inform the undersigned will be liberally rewarded for all trouble. This Lady resided in this State in the parish of Rapides, she was a Miss Mary F. Grimbail, lived together near two years, to one child a boy; after that they separated she left the State with a Mr. Moore her Brother-in-law, and the last heard from her she was in Mississippi, this is upwards of twenty years; her former husband Peter R. Grimbail died in 1838. I hear she has married again but do not know to who, or where she lives. Any person who will give me information will be very thankfully received and rewarded. JNO. P. GRIMBAIL. Bayou Rouge, Louisiana, Aug. 27 1848.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1850.

THE NEW YORK LITERARY AMERICAN, acknowledged by both the Public and the Press to be a FAMILY JOURNAL of the most elevated character, second to none on the continent, will enter upon its fourth Volume on the 5th of January, 1850, with new attractions in the shape of Original Contributions from the most distinguished writers in America, a galaxy of talent rarely equalled. Its contents will embrace every variety in the field of Polite Literature.

Tales, Sketches, Reviews, Poems, Anecdotes, Essays, and a most agreeable Miscellaneous Melange. Extracts will be made from new books, as they issue from the press; and we shall never draw, save from sources too expensive or rare to be within the reach of the general reader. Our watchword is EXCELSIOR, and we will do our best to spread before our readers, during the ensuing year, a rich literary treat.

During the next volume we shall insert no longer serial articles, or at least none that will be continued in more than two or three papers.

The American is issued in the best form for binding, and forms, at the end of the year, two fine volumes of more than one thousand pages.
